

Matrix Absence Radar

Informational videos for employers

The world of leaves and absences can be intimidating and confusing. That's why Matrix has created videos to inform employees about common leaves and absence types and their claim processes. For employers, there are several videos to help understand Matrix's claim procedures and online tools for managing them.

Each short video stars Rita, Matrix's friendly animated assistant, who breaks down information and processes in a way that's easy to understand. Go ahead and pay her a visit to learn more!
